Client Portal Acceptable Use Policy

What you may and may not do with your Client Portal account, and what we do to keep your company's information safe.

LAST MODIFIED
October 9, 2026

VERSION

SIGNED BY
Every person with a portal account, for themselves.

ALSO APPLIES
The DE Acceptable Use Policy at digeratiexperts.com/legal/aup.

01 Your account is yours alone

- Do not share your password, MFA codes, passkeys or sign-in links, and do not let anyone else use your session.
- Keep multi-factor authentication turned on. DE may require it for your role.
- Sign out on shared or public computers, and lock your screen when you step away.
- Tell DE right away if you think someone else has used your account, or if you receive a sign-in alert you do not recognize.

02 Use the portal for your company's business

- Request support, approve work, view records and download documents for the company you belong to, within your role.
- Only approve or sign what you are authorized to approve or sign.
- Give accurate information in tickets, requests and forms.

03 Not allowed

- 01 Trying to see or change another person's or another company's information, or to get around access controls, roles or approvals.
- 02 Probing, scanning, load-testing or attacking the Portal, or automating access to it (scripts, scrapers, bots) without DE's written permission.
- 03 Uploading malware, or files you do not have the right to share.
- 04 Using the Portal for anything unlawful, harassing, or unrelated to your company's relationship with DE.
- 05 Sharing confidential information from the Portal, including DE pricing, reports and documentation, outside your company without permission.

04 What we do

- We log sign-ins and actions to protect your company and to keep a record of what was requested and approved.
 - We may lock an account that shows signs of compromise or misuse, and we will tell you or your company IT contact why.
 - We never ask for your password by email, chat or phone.

05 Your agreement

By typing your name and selecting Sign Agreements, you confirm you have read this policy and agree to follow it. Breaking it may lead to your access being suspended or removed. DE may update this policy; the Portal will ask you to accept the new version.
